

PEACE DIALOGUES TABLE BETWEEN THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF COLOMBIA AND THE CENTRAL GENERAL STAFF OF THE FARC-EP

AGREEMENT I

AGREEMENT FOR THE RESPECT OF THE CIVILIAN POPULATION AND THE IMPLEMENTATION OF A BILATERAL AND TEMPORARY CEASEFIRE OF NATIONAL CHARACTER WITH TERRITORIAL IMPACT BETWEEN THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF COLOMBIA AND THE CENTRAL GENERAL
STAFF OF THE FARC-EP

The National Government of the Republic of Colombia and the Central General Staff of the FARC-EP and all its components reiterate their firm conviction to move forward towards the construction of a Peace Agreement that puts an end to the armed confrontation and promotes the achievement of a comprehensive, stable and lasting Peace, with social and environmental justice. To this end, they agree to the Bilateral and Temporary Ceasefire of National character with Territorial Impact CFBTNT.

The parties understand by Ceasefire the suspension of offensive military operations, special operations by the National Police and the offensive actions of the Central General Staff of the FARC-EP, with the aim of respecting the lives of the inhabitants of the national territory, reducing violence, alleviating humanitarian crises, fostering a more favourable environment for negotiations and charting a path towards a definitive ceasefire.

The Ceasefire will include an Oversight, Monitoring and Verification Mechanism (MVMV) and corresponding protocols.

General Considerations.

The state is the guarantor of the free and full exercise of the rights and freedoms of individuals and communities in the territories, maintaining at all times and places the validity of the Social Rule of Law. The civil, military and police authorities will continue to exercise their constitutional, legal and regulatory functions and attributions, without any exception, and in coherence with the human security approach, as well as the conventional obligations and duties in the field of International Human Rights Law and International Humanitarian Law, and the obligations enshrined in the present agreement.

This Agreement has as its frame of reference International Humanitarian Law -IHL-, in particular Article 3 common to the Geneva Conventions of 1949, Additional Protocol II of 1977, Resolution 1325 of 2000 of the United Nations Security Council, which recognises the impact of armed conflicts on women and girls, their protection and participation in peace processes, Resolution 2535 of 2020 of the United Nations Security Council on Youth, Peace and Security, and the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (General Assembly Resolution 61/295 of 13 September 2007), as well as the United Nations Declaration on the rights of peasants and other people working in rural areas (Resolution 73/165 approved by the General Assembly on 17 December 2018).

It also has as its frame of reference the stipulations of article 2 of the 1991 Political Constitution, in terms of the participation of the citizenry. In particular, it will guarantee the participation of the victims of the conflict, the indigenous peoples, the Black communities, the Afro-Colombians, the Raizales, the Palenqueras, the Rrom, the peasant farmers, women, young people and other groups of special protection.

This Agreement shall be binding on the parties, and any disregard of the agreements set forth herein shall be verified by the Mechanism.

I. Objectives:

1. Respect for life in all its forms, the rights and freedoms of the civilian population, the territory and the environment.
2. Promote education and the participation of the population, their communities and the organisations.
3. Ceasefire and offensive military operations, special operations by the National Police and offensive actions by the Central General Staff of the FARC-EP.
4. Facilitate the operating conditions of the Peace Dialogues Table
5. Create the conditions for the fulfilment of territorial, national and immediately applicable agreements.
