An agreement was reached to end the conflict and armed clashes between the people of the al-Rabadi sub-district and Ansar Allah. This agreement is based on the following:

1. Withdrawing the armed fighters from their positions and not taking any new positions or military actions by either side so that things can return to how they were before and both sides can peacefully coexist
There shall also not be any more violence, in any form, and incitement by either side against the other is prohibited
2. Everything that has happened in the past is considered to have not happened and nothing can be based on it
3. Ansar Allah shall adhere to not pursuing any individual who participated in these clashes with the other side, raiding homes or villages, or stopping them anywhere because all that has happened is considered to be a part of what has happened all over the country, and we are all brothers and friends.
4. Ansar Allah shall release the detainees to the people of al-Rabadi, and the people of al-Rabadi must hand over the military vehicle to Ansar Allah. Each side shall be responsible for their own dead and injured, and everyone shall be responsible for behaving in a brotherly and peaceful manner and coexisting in the area. This is what the first party, the representative of Ansar Allah, Capt. Ali bin Hasan Abd Allah [illegible] and the second party, to represent the people of al-Rabadi, Muhammad Qassim Lutf, Ahmad Ali Ahmad Aqil, [illegible], Sheikh Abd al-Hamid Qassim al-Qat'ah, Sheikh Ameen Muhammad Abdullah Hasan [illegible], Capt.
