Joint communiqué of the Government of the Democratic Republic of the Congo and the Government of the Republic of Rwanda on a common approach to ending the threat posed to peace and stability in both countries and the Great Lakes region

We, the Government of the Democratic Republic of the Congo and the Government of the Republic of Rwanda, having met in Nairobi on 9 November 2007, have agreed on a common approach to address the threat posed to our common security and stability by the ex-FAR/Interahamwe.¹ The meeting was facilitated by the United Nations, in the presence of the United States and the European Union.

We, consistent with the commitments made in the Lusaka Ceasefire Agreement of 1999, which set out modalities for the disarmament and repatriation of all foreign armed groups, including the ex-FAR/Interahamwe, in the territory of the DRC; the bilateral agreement signed in Pretoria on 30 July 2002 between the Governments of the DRC and Rwanda; the Principles on Good Neighbourly Relations and Cooperation between the DRC and Burundi, Rwanda and Uganda of 25 September 2003; the Pact on Security, Stability and Development in the Great Lakes Region of 15 December 2006; and the various commitments made within the framework of the Tripartite Plus Commission, including the commitments made by the Tripartite-plus Members in Lubumbashi on 8 June 2007 and Kampala on 17 September 2007; to eliminate the threat posed by illegal armed groups through peaceful and military means, taking into account the action plan presented by the Government of the DRC to address the problem of the ex-FAR/Interahamwe on 3 October 2007 and the response and counter-proposal made on this plan by the Government of Rwanda:

Have reiterated the following:

1. Peace and security in the DRC and the Great Lakes region can only be achieved once the threat posed by all foreign and national armed groups in the DRC and their politico-military organizations is addressed;
2. The ex-FAR/Interahamwe constitutes a major threat to peace and security of Rwanda, the DRC, and the countries in the Great Lakes region in general, as well as to the Congolese population;
3. The presence of irregular Congolese armed groups in eastern DRC equally poses a threat to peace and security in the DRC and the entire Great Lakes region;
4. We both reaffirm our commitment to respect and uphold each other's sovereignty, and reiterate our commitment to fully cooperate and implement a common approach to dismantle the ex-FAR/Interahamwe as a genocidal military organization operating in the territory of the DRC;

¹ The term ex-FAR/Interahamwe used in this text shall be understood as referring to all Rwandan armed groups on Congolese soil, irrespective of their denomination (ex-FAR, Interahamwe, ALIR, FDLR, RUD-Unana, Rasta etc).

5. We fully commit to prevent the direct or indirect support — political, material or human — to any national and foreign armed group operating in the DRC;
6. We shall share information, and address issues of common concern through existing mechanisms, in particular the Joint Verification Mechanism and the Tripartite Plus Commission;
7. We shall immediately assign the members to the Joint Verification Teams in Goma and Gisenyi as well as in Bukavu and Cyangugu;
