The Agenda items included concerns raised in the IGAD Envoys harmonization document dated October 23, 2015 and any other concerns that needed to be resolved to ensure the implementation of the Permanent Ceasefire and operationalization of the institutions provided for in the Agreement, and in the implementation timeline.

  - The activities must be resourced by the GRSS with the support of IGAD PLUS, AU, UN, Troika, China, the EU, IPF, Arab League, regional and international partners and friends of South Sudan;
- 4.6. Timelines for the Operationalization of the Implementation Mechanisms;
- According to the Agreement, if the D-day is August 26, 2015, the Pre-Transitional Period shall end on November 23, 2015. From October 26, 2015, we are left with only 27 days to establish the TGONU and commencement of the Transitional Period. The major constraint to the establishment of the TGONU on time is the process of amending the Transitional Constitution, which requires 21 days for the NCAC to incorporate the Agreement into the constitution, 7 days for the Minister of Justice to present it to the Council of Ministers and the adoption by Transitional National Assembly (TNA). The Agreement provides that the TNA shall adopt the constitution within 30 days and not after 30 days as provided in the current constitution. The President shall assent to and sign the constitution within 7 days. Therefore, the total number of days required to accomplish the process is 65 days.
  - If the time to accomplish the process remains 65 days, the Pre-Transitional Period shall end on December 28, 2015 and this would allow for the establishment of the TGONU between December 28, 2015 and January 27, 2016.
  - If the process of adopting the amendments is reduced by 14 days and the NCAC is timely established, the D-day can be reset to October 27, 2015 and this would allow for the establishment of the TGONU between December 15, 2015 and January 15, 2016.

- Given the fact that the process leading to the formation of TGONU has lagged far behind schedule as per the implementation matrix of the Agreement and if all other issues remain the same, the Leadership Committee recommends the adoption of the second option, which is between December 15, 2015 and January 15, 2016.

4.7. Appeal for resources;

- Following the signing of the Agreement on the Resolution of the Conflict in the Republic of South Sudan (ARCISS), the Leadership Committee of the Parties to the Agreement requests the IGAD PLUS to make an appeal to regional and international partners and friends of South Sudan to help finance the immediate needs to implement the Agreement.

Signed this 3rd day of November 2015 in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia.
