

Unnamed Agreement, (Hurritan and Malah Ceasefire), 16 February 2014

In the Name of Allah the Merciful

This is what was agreed between Jaysh al-Muhajireen wal-Ansar - represented by Brother 'Abd al-Karim al-Awkarani – and Liva' Shuhada' Badr [The Badr Martyrs Brigade] – represented by 'Abd al-Khalaq Abu Ahmad – regarding the problems in the areas of Hurritan and Malah and their surroundings.

First: The two sides have agreed to a full suspension of hostilities. [They have also agreed] to refer all outstanding issues between them, as well as emerging issues, to the rightful law of Allah by the arbitration of the Sharia [Shari'ah] Board in Aleppo.

Second: Both sides will immediately and unconditionally release all prisoners.

Third: The brothers in Jaysh al-Muhajireen wal-Ansar will remain in their headquarters in the area excepting the houses owned by the Shuhada' Badr that were given to them.

Fourth: The two sides have agreed to not form a headquarters among the residing families of the other side.

Fifth: The checkpoints in the area belong to the Shariah Board, Ahrar al-Sham and Jubhat al-Nusra. It is illegal for any muahjir or masked person to be stationed at the checkpoint.

Sixth: The two sides have agreed that no incidents [cases] linked to weapons before the date of the agreement should be lifted.

Seventh: Liva' Shuhada Badr vows to not form military headquarters in Malah or its surroundings.

Eighth: The two sides vow to give all forms of support to each other in the battle against the regime of al-Assad, according to their capacity.

The agreement was made in the presence of Sheikh Abu 'Amir, representative of Harakat Ahrar al-Sham al-Islamiyya and in the presence of two representatives of the two sides.

Praised be Allah, Lord of the Two Worlds
