

Khartoum Peace Agreement

(KPA)

Between the Sudan Peoples' Liberation Movement -In Government

And

The Agwelek Forces

January 16, 2022
Khartoum, Sudan

The SPLM -IG's delegation led and represented by Hon. Tut Gatiuak Manime, Presidential Advisor on National Security Affairs and the Agwelek Forces under the command of Gen. Johnson Olony Thubo Dak met on 16th January 2022 in Khartoum, Sudan and deliberated on matters raised and outlined in the position paper (attached) and referred to in this as peace agreement between the SPLM -IG and Agwelek Forces.

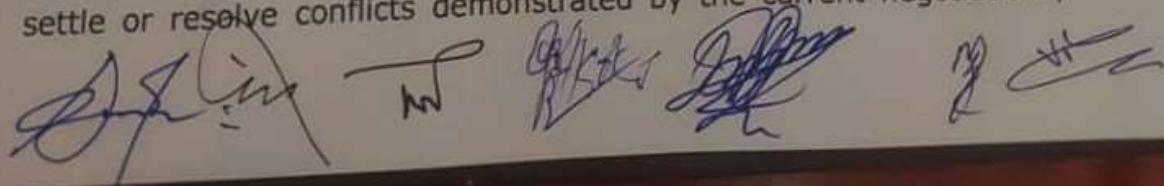

Expressing our deep regret for the suffering endured and continues to be perpetuated on the people of South Sudan and more particularly the communities of the Upper Nile State as a result of armed conflicts.

Determined to put aside our differences in all its manifestations in order to promote the factors that are common to us and which unite us and work collectively for the realization of the higher interests of the people of the Upper Nile State and the country at large.

Aware of the fact that, peaceful coexistence, unity, rule of law, reconciliation and development of Upper Nile State and the country is an aspiration of all our communities and the people of South Sudan.

Reaffirming our unwavering determination to put an end to the suffering of our people by addressing the root causes underlying the persisting and enduring conflicts, insecurity, hatred and political instability which hampers the social and economic development in the Upper Nile State and South Sudan at large;

Reaffirming our recommitments to prioritizing dialogue as a mean to settle or resolve conflicts demonstrated by the current negotiations,
