On Friday night 2/6/1440, the brothers between Hay'at Tahrīr al-Shām [Organization for the Liberation of the Levant] and brothers in Ḥurrās ad-Dīn [The Guardians of Religion Organization] sat. It was a good session filled with a spirit of faith in which the two parties pledged to stop the media quarrelling, and to cooperate with each other to fight the enemy. Whereas, we count the two groups as Mujahidin who work to support religion and achieve God's will in his land.

The two parties agreed on the Badia incident at the Tal Hadba checkpoint, on the following
1- Forming a court regarding the blood that was [shed] in the accident, in which Sheikh Abu Muhammad Wahb, is to be the judge. Those who fired from Ḥurrās ad-Dīn to be arrested and transferred to court.
2- In the event that Ḥurrās ad-Dīn want to carry out an executive action within the Badia, this is not will only be done in coordination with the Badia faction of Hay'at Tahrīr al-Shām
God Bless
